

SNOHOMISH REGIONAL FIRE & RESCUE

FAST FACTS

We are Snohomish Regional Fire & Rescue.

- Provide fire suppression and emergency medical services (EMS) through highly-trained personnel and state-of-the-art rescue programs.
- Respond to an average of 17,000 emergency calls per year.
- Offer comprehensive prevention and education programs.

We are accountable to our taxpayers.

- Operate under a balanced budget.
- Passed all independent audits by the state.

We serve 180,655 residents covering over 140 square miles.

- Serve Lake Stevens, Monroe, Maltby, Clearview, and unincorporated southeast Snohomish County .
- Provide emergency services to the city of Mill Creek on a contract basis through 2022.

Community support has built one of the best emergency response agencies in the state.

- Cardiac save rate is twice the national average.
- Voters returned the fire levy to $1.50 per $1,000 in 2021.
- Funding will be used to hire additional firefighters, two fire inspectors and a medical services officer; improve firefighter training programs; and complete station projects.
- Seeking accreditation by the Center for Public Safety Excellence's Commission. Accredited agencies have better save rates for fire and EMS calls. It also could improve our risk rating, which is linked to what residents pay in homeowner insurance premiums.

We have a long-term plan to deliver cost-effective emergency services.

- Planning, preparing for, and responding to emergencies is what we do best.
- In 2021 SRFR completed a new Capital Facilities Plan, Standards of Cover report, and a five-year Strategic Plan.
